The performances are electrifying, as Dr. Sax leaps into pit sofas with the audience and stands on chairs. Often their guitarist and bass player are boogieing on the dance floor with the crowd ... while never missing a note! As a band, the dangling success is dedicated to lifting spirits and putting excitement back into the lives of listeners. They make up one smokin' soul jazz band, just waiting to jump start your spirits again.

One thing is clear, the fun the band members have on stage is contagious, and the audience is quick to join in.
